

Research Computing Executive Committee (RCEC)

Mandate

The Research Computing Executive Committee (RCEC) will focus on overall university needs and longer term planning, as well as holding ultimate decision-making power over significant investments. The RCEC will appoint the members of the Shared Research Computing Policy Advisory Committee (SRCPAC). RCEC will meet no less often than once per year to review SRCPAC's Annual Report.

Membership

G. Michael Purdy (Chair) Executive Vice President for Research
David Madigan Executive Vice President for Arts and Sciences Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences	David Madigan's Alternate: Peter deMenocal Dean of Science, Faculty of Arts and Sciences
Mary Boyce Dean The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science	Mary Boyce's Alternate: Shih-Fu Chang Senior Executive Vice Dean The Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science
Gaspare LoDuca Vice President of Information Technology Chief Information Officer
Ann Thornton University Librarian	Ann Thornton's Alternate: Robert Cartolano Associate Vice President for Digital Programs & Technology Services
Justin Pearlman Chief of Staff Office of the Provost
Chris Marianetti Chair of the Shared Research Computing Policy Advisory Committee (SRCPAC)	Victoria Hamilton (Staff) Executive Director of Research Initiatives Office of the Executive Vice President for Research